

EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

Version: 1.0

Last Updated: 11 August 2026

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy handbook is to establish clear expectations regarding employee conduct, attendance, reporting chain of command, confidentiality, ethical standards, and workplace responsibilities at BSmile The Mind Studio.

All employees are required to read, understand, and comply with the provisions outlined in this handbook. This policy is applicable to all employees working for Bsmile The Mind Studio.

2. Core Values

Employees of BSmile The Mind Studio shall uphold:

- Integrity in Practice
- Trust & Transparency
- Respect & Compassion
- Continuous Learning & Curiosity
- Creative Problem-Solving
- Passion for Excellence
- Client-Centred Practice
- Responsible Ownership

3. Employment Conduct

3.1 Professional Behaviour

Employees are expected to:

- Treat all clients, caregivers, visitors, and colleagues with dignity and respect.
- Maintain professional boundaries with clients at all times.
- Conduct themselves in a manner that protects the reputation of the organization.
- Refrain from any behavior that may compromise client welfare or organizational integrity.
- Employees are expected to maintain a clean, professional, and client-appropriate appearance while office hours and at any events representing the organization.
- Employees shall not report to work under the influence of alcohol, illegal substances, or medications that significantly impair professional performance.
- Employees shall not bring personal visitors into therapy rooms, assessment areas, or spaces containing confidential client information.

3.2 Moonlighting Policy

Moonlighting, secondary employment (Exception for Online psychologists), freelance work, consulting assignments, or any paid professional engagement outside BSmile The Mind Studio is strictly prohibited.

This includes:

- Providing therapy services independently.
- Working for competing organizations.
- Conducting private consultations for remuneration.
- Online counselling or coaching services outside organizational authorization.

Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Any exceptional circumstances require prior written approval from Management.

4. Attendance Policy

4.1 Attendance Records

All employees must record attendance through the organization's attendance system.

- Attendance must be marked upon arrival and departure.
- Attendance should also be marked in the attendance ledger.
- Employees are responsible for ensuring successful attendance registration.

Any discrepancy, missed record, or system error must be reported immediately to the Assistant Manager via email.

Failure to report discrepancies promptly may result in the attendance being recorded as absent.

4.2 Working Hours

Office Working hours will be from 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM, including a 1-hour lunch break. The office will be operational 6 days a week, Monday to Saturday, with Sunday as the weekly holiday. Public holidays as observed by the organization will also be considered holidays.

Employees are expected to:

- Report to work on time.
- Adhere to assigned schedules.
- Complete assigned duties during working hours.

Repeated tardiness or unauthorized absence may lead to disciplinary action.

5. Leave Policy

5.1 Leave Approval

All leave requests must be submitted through email.

Leave shall be considered approved only after Email confirmation is received from the authorized approving authority.

Employees shall not proceed on leave without approval except in genuine emergencies. Verbal approvals are not considered official unless subsequently documented. You will be entitled to 1 casual leave per month, subject to the organization's leave procedures and prior approval from the management. Please note, Any Additional leaves shall be considered Leave without Pay.

5.2 Extended Leave and Multiple Employee Leave

Manager approval shall also be required in the following situations:

- Leave exceeding one working day.
- Multiple employees requesting leave on the same day.

Approval may be denied or modified based on service requirements and staffing needs.

5.3 Emergency Leave

In emergencies:

- The employee must inform the reporting authority immediately.
- An email notification must be sent as soon as possible.

6. Organizational Structure and Reporting Hierarchy

6.1 Reporting Structure

Interns → Assistant Manager

Sales Coordinator/Sales Head → Assistant Manager/General Manager/Director (only under management's instruction)

Psychologist → Assistant Manager/General Manager

Online Part-Time Psychologists → Psychologist/Assistant Manager

Assistant Manager → General Manager/Director (only under management's instruction)

General Manager → Director

6.2 Chain of Command

Employees are expected to communicate through their immediate reporting authority.

Direct communication with higher levels of management should be avoided unless:

- Directed by management.
- Required for urgent operational reasons.
- Existing reporting channels are unavailable.

6.3 Escalation Policy

Escalation beyond the reporting hierarchy shall occur only in exceptional circumstances including:

- Client safety concerns.
- Ethical violations.
- Legal concerns.

- Serious workplace misconduct.
- Urgent operational disruptions.

Employees must attempt resolution through the normal chain of command before escalating whenever reasonably possible.

7. Client Confidentiality and Privacy

Protecting client confidentiality is a fundamental responsibility.

Employees shall:

- Maintain strict confidentiality regarding all client information.
- Access client records only when required for professional duties.
- Avoid discussing client information in public or unauthorized settings.
- Secure all documents, records, and electronic information.

Confidential information shall not be disclosed without:

- Client consent
- Legal requirement
- Clinical necessity approved by management.

Violation of confidentiality may result in immediate disciplinary action.

8. Clinical Documentation Standards

All clinical staff must maintain accurate and timely documentation.

Records shall include:

- Assessment notes.
- Progress notes.
- Treatment plans.
- Follow-up records.
- Referral documentation.

Documentation must be:

- Clear and objective.
- Completed promptly.
- Stored securely and maintained according to organizational requirements.

Falsification of records is grounds for disciplinary action.

9. Professional Ethics

All clinical professionals shall practice according to applicable professional ethical standards.

Employees shall:

- Work within their professional scope of practice.
- Maintain professional boundaries.
- Seek supervision when necessary.
- Refer clients when appropriate expertise is unavailable.

- Any employee identifying an immediate risk to a client's safety must promptly notify their reporting authority and follow the organization's crisis management procedures. Any unethical conduct may lead to disciplinary proceedings.

9.1 Professional Boundaries with clients

- Employees shall not engage in personal, romantic, financial, or business relationships with clients.
- Accepting significant gifts from clients is prohibited without management approval.
- Personal contact details of employees should not be shared unless authorized by the organization.
- Communication with clients should occur only through approved channels.

10. Social Media and Public Communication

Employees shall not:

- Share confidential client information online.
- Discuss client cases on social media.
- Represent personal opinions as organizational positions.
- Post content that damages the reputation of BSmile The Mind Studio.

Any media inquiries must be directed to Management.

11. Roles and Responsibilities

Each employee shall be provided with a Job Description (JD) outlining their duties, responsibilities, reporting relationships, performance expectations, and scope of work. Employees are expected to perform their assigned responsibilities in accordance with their JD and any reasonable instructions provided by management.

The organization reserves the right to modify job responsibilities based on operational requirements, provided such changes are communicated to the employee.

12. Workplace Respect and Anti-Harassment Policy

BSmile The Mind Studio is committed to maintaining a respectful and inclusive workplace.

The following are strictly prohibited:

- Harassment.
- Bullying.
- Intimidation.
- Discrimination.
- Verbal abuse.
- Sexual harassment.

Complaints will be investigated confidentially and promptly.

Retaliation against employees reporting concerns is prohibited.

13. Information Technology and Data Protection

Employees shall:

- Use organizational systems responsibly.
- Maintain password confidentiality.
- Protect electronic records.
- Avoid unauthorized downloading or sharing of data.

Client information shall not be stored on personal devices unless specifically authorized.

13.1 Resignation/Termination of Employee

In the instance of employee resignation/termination:

- All client files must be updated.
- Ongoing cases must be handed over.
- Organization property must be returned.
- Access to systems and records must be revoked.

14. Grievance Redressal Procedure

Employees who have workplace concerns may:

1. Discuss the issue with their immediate supervisor.
2. Escalate to the Assistant Manager if unresolved.
3. Escalate to the Manager if necessary.
4. Escalate to the Director only in exceptional circumstances.

All grievances shall be reviewed fairly and confidentially.

15. Disciplinary Action

Violations of organizational policies may result in:

- Verbal warning.
- Written warning.
- Performance improvement plan.
- Suspension.
- Termination of employment.

Serious misconduct may result in immediate termination.

Examples include:

- Breach of confidentiality.
- Falsification of records.
- Unauthorized disclosure of information.
- Workplace harassment.
- Moonlighting.
- Gross negligence affecting client welfare.

16. Policy Amendments

BSmile The Mind Studio reserves the right to amend, revise, or update these policies at any time to meet operational, legal, ethical, and professional requirements.

Employees will be notified of significant policy changes.